Labor Day Fundraiser Success

What a great fundraiser SOBA had on Saturday, September 4th. Besides the great weather, we had a wonderful volunteer turnout and signed up new members. First and foremost, the fundraiser could not have been so successful without the great organizer, Ann Kelley. Even though she lives 5 + hours from Surfside, she was able to take care of all the details and coordinate everyone. Besides the excellent barbecue, complements of K.P. and the Canes' grilling expertise, the briskets were just as delicious as they smelled.

I liked the ideal of pre selling the briskets . It looks like SOBA may need to invest in their own pit in the future, as long as someone can get K.P. and the Canes' recipe. Kathy Cane sold many a t-shirt so you will be seeing more people proudly displaying their SOBA "digs". Thanks to "Judge Brenda" for helping with the chairs and tables. And I can't leave out all who brought canopies. What a great idea of Dawn and Linda to take the fundraiser "on the road". By the end of the day, SOBA profited funds to help in our Christmas Tree Dune re-building project and satisfied many a Sufside local and visitor with yummy barbecue for their Labor Day pleasures. Thanks to all that helped .
