Be ready! Hurricanes AFTER BEFORE If your home has damage, Cover windows with do not reenter until it has storm shutters or been examined by a building plywood inspector for safety. Prevent mold growth by airing out rooms and disinfecting. More information Tune in for local Tap water may not be safe to information drink, Listen to local warnings. More information Throw away food that may be unsafe. More information Know how to turn off your gas, electricity, and water in case you Prevent carbon need to evacuate. Secure outdoor monoxide poisoning. items by moving Use generators, stoves, and grills outside and them to the garage away from windows and doors. 20 feet-Designate a shelter area if you can't evacuate. Rooms without windows are best Make an emergency kit. Public Health Preparedness and Response